Politics are on our mind this week. There are a couple of local issues we are itching to debate in this space, but the nearness to the runoff election and possible implications that we would be endorsing one or the other mayor candidate, would not be fair to the one apparently endorsed, or his opponent. We will just scratch the itch and write about it later.

SERIOUS A lot of peanut producers are becoming better acquainted with late leafspot disease in peanuts. This disease is already showing up in peanut fields. A lot of folks are worried about this disease. Why? Late leafspot is caused by a different organism than early leafspot showing up late. It's not. What makes late leafspot so costly? The disease organism will multiply about 100 times faster than early leafspot. This means if you let late leafspot get a toehold, you could easily lose a big part of your peanut

What's the best way to prevent late leafspot? Bravo is the only material currently recommended by the Extension pathologists for the control of late leafspot. It is extremely important to use a fairly high pressure with plenty of water so that the top side and underside of the leaf will be covered. Don't hesitate to spray every seven days if you get into a rainy

A lot of people call about the price of farm land in the county. I don't have figures for the county but the average price of farm land for the state in February was $639 per acre. # THANK YOU!!

I would like to thank every citizen of Elba for the kindness shown to me and my family during my campaign.

This past Tuesday a majority of you voiced your confidence in me by voting me the leading candidate for the office of Mayor of our fine town.

I thank my fellow candidates for the manner in which they conducted their campaigns.

I earnestly solicit the consideration of every voter in my effort to become YOUR MAYOR for the next four critical years.

Roundup final game.

Cardinals 2
Tommy Holt doubled in Mike McCollough with the go-ahead run in the top of the seventh-inning, and the Mets held on to edge the Cardinals 3-2. The two league powers met four times during the season, 1. Johnny Martin with both claiming two wins. 2. Ken Martin The Mets opened the scoring in the first-inning when Mike McCollough singled and scored on a hit by Derek Young, but the Cardinals came back in their half of the inning to tie the game at 1-1. The score came when Kimmie Daniels singled-in Mick Phillips, who Art Brunson slugged a home-run in the third-inning to put the Mets back on top 2-1, but again the Cardinals rallied and knotted the score at 2-2. Mick Phillips singled with two outs and scored on a double by Kevin Goosby econd and third with no outs in the sixth-inning, but could not score and the game went into extra innings. Mike McCollough led off the seventh-inning with a double and scored on Tommy Holt's double as the Mets claimed the win 3-2. Mike McCollough, Tommy Holt, Derek Young, and Jetey Wise all got 2 hits to pace the Mets, while Mick one-hitter and struck-out 6 batters, and the Tigers took advantage of 19 walks as they rolled to a 17-2 win over the Yankees. Tracey Sanders and Tom Stroud got 3 and 2 hits, respectively, to lead the Tigers, while Mark Stokes got the only Yankee hit.

Kimmie Daniels pitched a no-hitter and struck-out 14 batters to lead the Cardinals to a 6-1 win over the Tigers. The game was tied 1-1 early the contest, but the Cardinals slowly pulled away to post the win. Mick Phillips had two triples and Jeff Johnson added a single to pace the Cards.

The Mets jumped into an early 9-0 lead and breezed to an 11-2 win over the Astros. Art Brunson hit two doubles to pace the Mets, who took advantage of 15 walks to claim the win. Chris Thigpen got two hits for the Astros.

Cardinats Mick Phillips and Kevin Goosby both slugged homeruns as the Cardinals ended the season by pounding the Yankees 17.0. Jeff Johnson, Mick Phillips, Kevin Goosby, and Scott Brown all got 2 hits for the Cardinals, while Chris Boyce got the lone Yankee
